S. Comments:Laid in under pressure in the home straight. When questioned in relation to the seemingly improved performance of the mare which was heavily supported in betting, Trainer P Jenkins advised that mare had always shown ability in its work and was able to win a maiden impressively during its previous preparation. He added that after winning its maiden mare had disappointed him at its next three starts and for that reason, he had spelled the mare. Mr Jenkins went onto to say that since returning from a spell the mare had work well and had performed strongly in a jump out and for that reason, h
