

THE QUEENSLAND OFF-THE-TRACK PROGRAM

FY22 OPERATIONS PERFORMANCE SUMMARY

SUBSIDISED LESSONS

LAUNCHED 26 JULY 2021

Supporting retired Thoroughbred and Standardbred horses as they transition from the racing industry into the domestic horse community.

351

Retired racehorses accepted into Subsidised Lessons Program

38 Approved Coaches 1,350 Lessons Completed

Transition Safety Net Stimulates Demand

ACKNOWLEDGED RETRAINERS

LAUNCHED 19 JANUARY 2022

Providing a high-quality first transition for Thoroughbred and Standardbred horses from racing or breeding activities into second careers.

27

Retired racehorses accepted into Acknowledged Retainers Program

12 Currently in Retraining 15 Retrained & Rehomed

Transition Safety Net Traceability

EVENT SPONSORSHIP

LAUNCHED 14 MARCH 2022

Creating competition opportunities, stimulating demand and supporting the visibility of retired racehorses in their post-racing careers.

35

Queensland events, series and aftercare clinics approved for sponsorship

27 Events 5 Series 3 Clinics

Stimulates Demand Traceability

GRANTS PROGRAM

LAUNCHED 1 JUNE 2022

Supporting not-for-profit organisations and charities that provide equine rehabilitation services, or second careers as therapy horses, for retired racehorses.

$100k

Allocated to organisations that provide a lifelong safety net for retired racehorses

7 Not-for-profit organisations and charities supported by QOTT grants.

Safety Net Traceability

TRACEABILITY

Working towards whole-of-life traceability to better understand the entire lifecycle of racehorses beyond their exit from the racing industry.

510

Retired racehorses traced through the QOTT Program

452 Thoroughbreds

58 Standardbreds

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

9 Education Articles Published

346 Facebook Followers since 16 June 2022

25,503 Annual Website Visitors