

AHC21216

Certificate II in Rural Operations

Certificate II in Rural Operations is a course designed for students looking for an entry pathway into the Rural Operations industry.

This course gives you solid foundations in the practical skills, theory and culture required to successfully gain an entry into this industry and additional training can lead to jobs in agriculture, horticulture, or land management industries.

Your unit selection will be through consultation with your course advisor - this is a Nationally recognised qualification.

To learn more, please visit:

<https://www.myskills.gov.au/courses/details?Code=AHC21216>

